The No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) (Title IX, Part E, Subpart 2, Section 8528) states that school districts are to allow the same access to students by military recruiters as they do college and job recruiters. This access includes releasing secondary school students' names, addresses and telephone numbers to military recruiters, who can use the information for armed services recruiting and for informing these students of scholarship opportunities. Secondary school students or their parents can request that the information not be released by notifying their guidance counselors with a written statement.

OPT OUT FORM

Section 9528 of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 requires schools to release our family's private information to military recruiters unless we "opt out" in writing.

_____ As a student, I am exercising the right to "opt out" and request that my own name, address and telephone number not be released to military recruiters.

_____ As a parent, I am exercising the right to "opt out" and request that you do not turn over the name, address and telephone number of the following student to military recruiters.
