Cadet Training Instructors (CTIs)

What is a CTI?

Being a CTI is not about yelling... it's about instructing. The CTIs are the instructors. They are not there to yell and haze first year cadets. They must conduct themselves in a professional manner.

Let's begin with the "Code of the CTI."

...My job is one of the most important in Air Force Junior ROTC and I will spare no effort to prepare cadets for Junior ROTC duty properly...I am dedicated to the principles of fairness, firmness, and honesty in my dealings with those entrusted to my charge. I am pledged to strive for excellence and reject mediocrity both in my personal behavior and in the performance of those for whom I am responsible.

CTI Robert Davis – Old Bridge

CTI Collin Peynado – Truman

CTI Dominic Vitali – Cherry Hill West
