

RESEARCH QUESTIONS

- Using the websites below, research the drug you were assigned.
- Type the questions and the answers as well as any other important facts you discover.
- Questions should be answered thoroughly.
- Cite each question. Put exactly where (website, book) you found the information after each question.
- Each person will hand in his/her own copy.

National Institute on Drug Abuse – www.nida.nih.gov/

Partnership for a Drug Free America – www.drugfreeamerica.org/

National Clearinghouse of Alcohol and Drug Information – www.health.org/

American Council for Drug Education – www.acde.org/

1. Name the drug assigned.
2. What does it look like? Description.
3. List all the ways this drug can be used? Ex. smoked
4. What is the category (stimulant, depressant, etc.) of drug?
5. What are the common street/slang names? Name as many as possible.
6. What are the short-term effects?
7. What are the long-term effects?
8. Is this drug physically addictive?
9. What are the withdrawal symptoms? Mental and physical
10. What are the symptoms of overdose?
11. Explain the Controlled Substance Act?
12. What is the federal classification of the drug researched? (schedule I, II, etc.) and what does this mean?
13. List both myths and facts about the drug. As many as possible.
14. Find three additional facts you think are important for teenagers to know about this drug.

