

 Good morning and hello from Mrs. Colligan & Ms. McG!

Today's Date: Wednesday 3-18-2020

 Where To Find Your Work:

E.L.A.: Today, you will use NEWSELA, NoRedInk.com

If you have not joined NEWSELA or NoRedInk please follow Miss McG's class page in School Wires to join. It looks like you all have. Hopefully you have recorded your username and password in a safe reliable location to refer to.

All your work will be in the NEW Class Notebook, not the old one. All your teachers have access to this ONE Notebook: COLLIGAN ROOM 131 - REMOTE LEARNING NOTEBOOK

SPELLING: Unit 15 Spelling Connections Workbook pages or Spelling City for classwork for ELA as well as Class Notebook. Everyone will use the same spelling list!

 Learning Objectives:

Students will:

- Read an article on the growth of cotton as a crop and answer questions about the crop. ** articles are NOT necessarily in order. Sift through them.
- Practice various language skills such as writing a concluding paragraph, sorting out homophones, using proper verb tenses and the ability to draw a reader into a piece by creating a hook.
- Use various spelling strategies
- Read for comprehension and understanding and entertainment in a self-chosen book

 Learning Activities:

Read an article and respond in NewsELA

NoRedInk.com:

- Conclusion Paragraphs- Practice
- Commonly Confused Words- Practice (This should be done)
- Tenses-Practice (This should be done)
- Creating a Hook-Diagnostic

Spelling City- Unit 15 Workbook/ Spelling City VARIOUS activities

IDR for 30 minutes. Please fill in the reading record in the Class Notebook identified above

 How I will see/check your work:

We will check spelling city for your spelling test and continue to monitor your NoRedInk.com. Ms. McG. And I will be in NewsELA to monitor and check your work. We will be looking at your reading record in the notebook daily

 How We Communicate: Please email me at tcolligan@wtps.org or Ms. McG at KMcGoldrick@wtps.org
