She encourages others and always reaches out to help both her classmates as well as her teachers. She is always prepared for class with all her materials, her enthusiastic attitude and her good heart. She motivates us all to be upbeat and engaged in whatever we are doing.
- Mrs. Honora Kelley-Lopez

ISABELLA CABRERA

- Isabella Cabrera 8th grade Science: Responsibility, Community Respect, Citizenship Isabella has a commitment to working inside and outside of class. She is a true role model for what a class community should be like during class and labs. She works well with peers, and advocates for herself. Isabella asks questions and asks for clarification. She also works hard to apply what she learns in class and comes during split and after school for help as needed. Her work ethic, character, and respect for herself and her community are all things that I admire about her and this is why I picked her for my Science Student of the Month.
- Ms. Brenda Powers-BenAttou

GRACE WAHL

- Grace displays all the character pillars. Grace is a very caring person. She helps people in need and genuinely cares about them. She shows citizenship by writing a fact on my board every day. The other students look forward to this daily. I can rely on her to do the right thing in every situation.
- Mrs. Susan Flaherty
