We are so lucky to attend a school with so many classes, activities and opportunities and I hope that the student body appreciates that and takes advantage of everything WTHS has to offer.

What was your most embarrassing moment of high school?

As President of Student Council, I had the opportunity to address the student body on the second day of school this year. To open my speech for the junior and senior classes, I meant to ask who was there from the Class of 2009 and the Class of 2008 but accidentally said 2007! I realized my mistake when the roar of the crowd I expected was instead dead silence.

What is your favorite food?

Double Stuffed Oreos - I'm addicted.

What are your plans for the future?

I want to go to the University of Pennsylvania as a Spanish and Biochemistry double major, go to medical school to study cardiology and somewhere in between the two, represent New Jersey at Miss America.

What do you look for in a guy?

I look for a guy to be intelligent, outgoing, taller than me, honest, and have a great sense of humor. It's also a plus when he can dance, loves to cook, likes to shop, and knows how to show a girl a good time.

Alexandra Yannelli

If you could choose one nominee (beside yourself) to win, who would it be and why?

I would choose Jess Mannon to be our 2007 Homecoming Queen. She is a very sincere person, kind to everyone, hard working, and gives back to her community. She's a great person and I love her for that.

What would you like to say to the WTHS student body?

WTHS is one of the best high schools any student could dream of attending. We have the best of the best at our school and you guys should take full advantage of it. What would you like to say to the WTHS student body?

Believe in yourself. Despite common misconception, everyone has the potential to do great things. You're all talented and you need to find that greatness inside yourself and share it with the rest of the world. When you fall or someone pushes you down, get up because you can. Be yourself and know that making good decisions doesn't mean that you won't be popular or cool - just be you. I promise it will pay off.

What is your favorite quote?

"Because it's only when you're tested that you truly discover who you are. And it's only when you're tested that you discover who you can be. The person that you want to be does exist, somewhere in the other side of hard work and faith, and belief and beyond the heartache and fear of what life has."
