*Social Distancing
in the Classroom*

This is a typical classroom (Social Studies/Health/World Language) Each seat is 6 feet apart. Giving a class size max of 14. Students must remain seated unless instructed by the teacher. Before a student moves, we have to ensure social distancing.

This is the Orchestra/Band Room. Each seat is 6 feet apart. Giving a class size max of 15. There will be very specific restrictions about playing and sharing instruments/percussion. Special protocols will be in place for students who use their mouths to play an instrument. Students must keep masks on at all times when not playing. When playing they can pull down their masks to play only. Other things to consider is how do control saliva in the instruments

This is the chorus room. Much of the furniture in the room can be removed leaving 15 chairs. Students will continue to wear masks and be permitted only to hum tunes and apply what was learned in terms of tonality and range in the remote setting

This is a computer room. If we place a student at every other workstation, that is more than 6 feet. We also can have one student per table in the center. 17 can social distance in this room.

This is a room with tables science/art/tech ed. There are 14 tables. You can social distance by putting one student per table for a total of 14. Students cannot use the lab spaces at this time.
