Summer School

Gloucester County Institute of Technology offers a credit remediation summer school program for high school students.

The summer program incorporates a NJ Highly Qualified, certified teacher with an on-line course of study. The program provides access to an in-depth, interactive, online curriculum. It allows the teacher to provide a targeted curriculum that meets the varied needs of individual students. Students can progress in a self-paced learning atmosphere within the five-week program. Periodic assessments track competency in subject matter and pinpoint difficulties. This flexible delivery system allows one student to complete the program in a three-week period, while another may take the program over a five-week period.

PLEASE NOTE: Students are strongly encouraged to work in person with our certified teachers on campus every Monday through Thursday between the hours of 9:00am and 12:00pm to enhance their learning opportunities and be successful in their coursework.

CREDITS

It is the responsibility of the student and/or parent to ensure that the student's home school will accept the credits from this program. This program may not be appropriate for students who do not work well in an independent setting.

CONDUCT

Incidents involving serious infractions, or repeated minor infractions, may result in immediate dismissal from the summer school program without refund of tuition and with forfeiture of credit. A copy of the student code of conduct will be included in your information packet, which is distributed on the 1st day of class, Monday, July 10, 2023.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Students are required to be present on the first day of class, July 10, 2023 to receive their log-on information and handbook.

Students will also be required to attend in person at least twice a week.

Hours of Operation

Monday through Thursday
July 10, 2023 to August 10, 2023
9:00am to 12:00pm
