Dear Parents,

I'm sure we are all in eager anticipation of the upcoming Superbowl. We wanted to draw your attention to various updates we have for the start of February 2018.

As always, the website is often a good option. However, Remind info is also helpful as well as various items are being pushed out through that venue as well. In order to stay abreast of some of the happenings at BHMS, we ask you to view information at the following links. It may be helpful to copy the URL links to your browser

February 2018 Calendar of Events:
