Dear Washington Township Parents:

In exactly 2 months, recording artist Jessie Chris will be performing at the 11/12 Auditorium at the High School (7pm on May 4). In October she visited all the middle schools and last month, she has visited students in grades 4 and 5 in all the Washington Township elementary schools to bring her message of Anti Bullying. Her concert is a culminating event to this campaign. Jessie has been named a 2018 Billboard Music Artist to Watch and recently topped the Adult Contemporary Charts with her duet with New Kids on the Block's Danny Wood. The song is "Bodyguard". Danny was so inspired by Jessie's message, he wanted to write a song about her efforts, their stories about being bullied in middle school, and to help support her anti-bullying campaign across the country. You can view the music video to this song at the following link: "Bodyguard" performed by Jessie Chris and Danny Wood.

Danny Wood was recently featured in People Magazine specifically discussing the song and the message that Jessie Chris had that inspired him to write. Please click the link to view the article about Danny Wood and Jessie Chris' collaboration: NKOTB's Danny Wood Talks about Making New Music

To get tickets to Jessie's Concert, you may download the ticket information here: Jessie Chris Tickets or go to Jessiechris.com and click on "tour". You may also get the ticket information from your child's school. Tickets start at just $10 and the concert is geared to students in grades 4-8. Parents and families are encouraged to come as well.

It will be a great night with our students and great music performed by a true champion for our children. Hope to see you there. Tickets are limited and going fast.

Very Truly Yours,

Mike D'Ostilio, Principal
