Unit Modifications for Special Population Students

Advanced Learners	Encourage reflection on media, personal experience and literature that includes topics of diversity and social justice. Connect how this relates to New Jersey’s definition of bullying. Reflect on upstander and bystander behaviors within peer groups.
Struggling Learners	Provide opportunities for peer assistance during independent, small group or group work. Emphasize key concepts: Diversity, differences, culture, race, upstander, bystander, social justice, prejudice. Provide opportunities for students to draw or verbalize answers to written questions.
English Language Learners	Pre-teach key vocabulary: diversity, culture, race, social justice, upstander, bystander, prejudice with simplified language. Allow access to bilingual dictionaries, language learner dictionaries and electronic translators.
Special Needs Learners	Reinforce written directions visually and/ or verbally (including audio recordings or text to speech on computer-based lessons). Check for understanding of key information / instructions and repeat/reword as needed. Allow options to draw pictures or speak answers to written questions.
Learners with a 504	Refer to page four in the Parent and Educator Resource Guide to Section 504 to assist in the development of appropriate plans.
